Highlights

In Q4 2018, annual NYC Ferry ridership surpassed the original projection of serving 4.6 million passengers once all six routes were in operation, with the LES and SV routes having been in service for only four months out of the year.

Service Notes

The Hunters Point South landing was closed in Q3 due to necessary maintenance, the landing re-opened for service on October 31st. The Sunset Park/BAT landing was closed for nearly three weeks while the barge was upgraded and replaced. There was a minor vessel allision with a pier near North Williamsburg. No injuries occurred and all passengers and crew were safe.

¹On Time Performance is calculated as the percentage of stops made within the quarter that depart no more than 1 minute before and arrive no more than 5 minutes past their scheduled times. This report includes delays due to events outside of the control of NYC Ferry, such as vessel traffic, river closures/obstructions, extreme weather conditions, and other U.S. Coast Guard restrictions. When tracking devices are offline, the stops are excluded from the calculation. ²Number of NYCF-branded vessels available for use; NYCF Partners with other operators to charter vessels at times of high demand. ³NYCF operates to Governors Island on weekends during its public season. Figure includes average ridership on weekends when service operated in Q4. ⁵Governors Island ridership is included in this figure.
